CHILDREN & YOUTH NEWS

Happening

Please pray for all Happeners this weekend. Happening is a youth event for Senior High students that is lead by past youth who have already Happened. Our own Annabelle Fisher is on Happening Team this year in a leadership role. Please ask Annabelle about her experience with Happening when you see her. Annabelle is serving as the Head Gopher and is in charge of all the supplies for the entire Happening weekend.

No Children's Chapel Sunday

No Children's Chapel this Sunday. Amy will be away at Happening, but will return in time for EYC, 4:30 to 6.

No Youth Confirmation Class Sunday

No youth confirmation class this Sunday, please take a look at your email for a study on your own lesson that will be due Sunday, November 4.

CHURCH WOMEN UNITED

Ladies, if you haven't yet attended a Church Women United (CWU) gathering with us yet, please consider attending the next meeting on Thursday, November 1, at 11:00 a.m. at the High Point Library. The speaker is Mary Sizemore, the library director, who will give us an overview of the services they offer and will introduce the staff to us. This is an opportunity for us to be present in the community and also learn more about our wonderful library. A $4.00 luncheon will follow the program.

St. Mary's is a longtime member of the High Point chapter of CWU, a racially, culturally and theologically inclusive Christian women's group, which celebrates unity in diversity and works for world peace and justice.

Please let Judy Hennen know if you'd like to attend NO LATER THAN this Monday, October 29. Also, contact her if you need to arrange carpooling. 336 698-5787 or jhennen705@aol.com. Hope to see you there Thursday morning!

EVENING PRAYER WITH HOLY EUCHARIST

Join us Monday evening October 29 at 6pm in the Chapel to celebrate the Feast of St. Simon and St. Jude.

Simon and Jude were among the twelve men Jesus chose to lead his Church. Tradition holds that after Pentecost, Simon preached the Gospel in Edessa and Jude in Egypt. The two Apostles met in Persia, where they suffered martyrdom on the same day.

St. Simon is represented in art with a saw, the instrument of his martyrdom. St. Jude's square points him out as an architect of the house of God. St. Paul called himself by this name; and St. Jude, by his Catholic Epistle, has also a special right to be reckoned among our Lord's principal workmen. But our apostle had another nobility, far surpassing all earthly titles: being nephew, by his father Cleophas or Alpheus, to St. Joseph, and legal cousin to the Man-God, Jude was one of those called by their compatriots the brethren of the carpenter's Son. We may gather from St. John's Gospel another precious detail concerning him. In the admirable discourse at the close of the last Supper, our Lord said: "He that loveth Me, shall be loved of My Father: and I will love him and will manifest Myself to him." Then Jude asked Him: "Lord, how is it, that Thou wilt manifest Thyself to us, and not to the world?" And he received from Jesus this reply: "If any one love Me, he will keep My word, and My Father will love him, and We will come to him, and will make Our abode with him. He that loveth Me not keepeth not My word. And the word which you have heard is not Mine, but the Father's who sent Me."

TAIZE - NOVEMBER 1

Taize service this coming Thursday, November 1 at 8:00p.m. in the Chapel. This service is held the first Thursday of every month from September to May.
