BEWARE OF E-MAIL SCAM

To follow-up on our parish-wide email earlier in the week, here is an article published by The Diocese in their Please Note publication:

OVER THE LAST SEVERAL MONTHS, a recurring email scam has been active once again; even this week we've seen several notices from churches alerting parishioners to false emails making the rounds. We've posted a few notices ourselves, as scam emails purporting to be from bishops and diocesan staff continue to surface.

How it works: you receive an email from what appears to be your bishop, a member of your church's clergy or someone else in a leadership position. The email is always cordial, friendly and familiar, and eventually it always asks for your help, usually in the form of gift card purchases, donations or some other directive that will cost you money.

These are scams - please do not respond to them. Unfortunately, there is no way to stop them, but you can be aware of them and, therefore, avoid them.

How will you know it's a scam?

- Check the email address of the sender; it will not be your bishop, clergy or leader's real email address.
- Know these church leaders will not ask you for money via these methods...ever.
- If you just are not sure, call your church (or the Diocese) to ask if there is a fundraising campaign with this message. If your church is doing fundraising of any kind, church staff will tell you exactly what messages are coming from them.

If you do receive this message, do not respond, but you can take action. Report it as spam to your email provider, and alert your church you received it so they can spread the word to keep an eye out for it.

There's nothing you can do to prevent these emails, but being aware and knowing they are a scam will reduce them to a nuisance you can easily delete.

SUMMER CHOIR BEGINS JUNE 2

If you enjoy singing but are unable to make long-term commitments, the Summer Choir has a place for you! When the summer schedule begins the first Sunday of June, St. Mary's Choir takes a holiday from mid-week rehearsals and meets Sunday mornings an hour before the service for a brief rehearsal. We prepare familiar hymns, the service music and short Offertory anthems (interesting pieces that are not too long or too difficult).

We invite anyone who would like to make a real contribution to St. Mary's worship to join us for a Sunday or for the summer. Just come by the choir room on the second floor of the Parish House any Sunday at 10:00 a.m. For more information, take to Harold at 336-299-8518 or any Choir member.
