ADULT ED SUMMER MEETUP #1

Join Fr. Gus at DeBeen on Wednesday, June 26th at 7:30pm for coffee and conversation. At this meetup, the first in a series of three standalone summer conversations, we will explore the role that food has played in Christian spirituality beyond the bread and wine of the Eucharist. No advanced reading required! If you're pretty sure you'd like to come, feel free to send an email to gusc@stmarysepisc.org. You are, however, most welcome to just show up.

EVENING PRAYER WITH HOLY EUCHARIST

Join us Monday evening, June 24 at 6pm in the Chapel to celebrate the Feast of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist.

The Nativity of John the Baptist on June 24 comes three months after the celebration on March 25 of the Annunciation, when the angel Gabriel told Mary that her cousin Elizabeth was in her sixth month of pregnancy, and six months before the Christmas celebration of the birth of Jesus. The purpose of these festivals is not to celebrate the exact dates of these events, but simply to commemorate them in an interlinking way. The Nativity of John the Baptist anticipates the feast of Christmas.

The Nativity of John the Baptist is one of the oldest festivals of the Christian church, being listed by the Council of Agde in 506 as one of that region's principal festivals, where it was a day of rest and, like Christmas, was celebrated with three Masses: a vigil, at dawn, and at midday. It is one of the patronal feasts of the Order of Malta.
