HURRICANE FLORENCE

As of right now, all church services will be held at the regularly scheduled times on Sunday, September 16. However, in light of the uncertainty of the impact of Hurricane Florence changes to our normal schedule may take place. You will receive notification via text message or email from Flock Note if anything does change. If you don't hear from us, please attend church as usual, if you are able to safely.

O God, in you we find safety. We lift up to you your people already impacted by this storm and those who prepare for its approach. We ask you to gather them into the safety of your loving embrace. We also ask that your love for us all unite us and enable us to support our sisters and brothers who face this challenge. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

PARISH RETREAT RESCHEDULED

The Parish Retreat scheduled for this weekend at Kanuga has been rescheduled due to Hurricane Florence. We have made plans to host the Parish Retreat on February 22-24, 2019. We hope more St. Marians will be able to join us in February. Look for registration options after the first of the year.

INTERSECTION OF FOOD AND FAITH

Dr. Derek Hicks, from Wake Forest Divinity School, is speaking on the intersection of food and faith at Emerywood Baptist Church on Wednesday, Sept. 19, and 26. This is a wonderful opportunity for those in our parish who are interested in conversations around food insecurity and sustainability, specifically from a Christian perspective. The evening begins with a meal at 5:30pm, and programming begins around 6:15pm. The cost for the meal is $6/adult and $3/child. If you would like participate in the dinner, please RSVP to Lisa Bishop, lbishop@emerywoodbaptist.org, or call the Emerywood church office at 336-885-6016. You do not need to RSVP if you plan to attend only the programming.
