ST. ANNE'S MEETING

The St. Anne's chapter of ECW, September meeting will be Monday evening, September 10th, at 6:00 p.m. at Penny's in Jamestown. (RSVP to judy43@triad.rr.com) Our giving project for the month will be supplies for the teaching kitchen at the YWCA. Supplies needed are foil, zip lock bags, dish detergent, dish soap, towels, washcloths, plastic forks, spoons, knives, napkins and Pam spray.

EYC RESUMES THIS SUNDAY!

EYC resumes this Sunday, September 9 in the Youth Room (downstairs in the CLC), not the Great Hall from 4:30-6:00pm. Our Youth Room has a new look and we have some new program offerings this year! One thing remains the same; the reason we gather is to explore our faith, learn together, and share Christ's love! Friends are always welcome!

JR. ALTAR GUILD KICK-OFF MEETING

Any young parishioner, grades 6 through 12 (yes, male and female), is invited to learn more at our kickoff meeting on Sunday, September 9 after the 11 a.m. service. Lunch will be served in the Parish Hall and interested youth and their parents are invited to attend.

For more information, contact Mary Beth Yates. Please also let her know if you plan to attend. 336-255-3026 or gooleyates@aol.com

HIGH POINT FOOD SUMMIT

Learn more about food hardship in High Point and how you can become involved in developing sustainability in our communities suffering most by limited food choices. Volunteer project committees (Urban Agriculture & Community Gardening; Food Education; Farmers Market, Food Pantries & Meals) of Greater High Point Food Alliance and additional programs will be presented at the 4th annual Food Summit: Friday, September 28 (8:30am through 1:00pm?), High Point Community Center (former Oak Hollow Mall), 921 Eastchester Drive. No reservation required to attend; further information at www.ghpfa.org

Highlight: "The opportunity for some of our local urban farmers to be selling at the (HP) farmers market has been extremely important because they're taking land that was sitting idle and making it productive." ~ Carl Vierling, Director, Greater High Point Food Alliance

Learn more about some of these farmers, Growing High Point, www.growinghighpoint.org and shop the High Point Farmers Market (Saturdays, 8:30am-1:00pm through October), High Point Public Library Plaza, 901 N. Main Street, <https://www.highpointnc.gov/1753/High-Point-Farmers-Market>

SPEAKER ON INTERSECTION OF FOOD AND FAITH AT EMERYWOOD BAPTIST

Dr. Derek Hicks, from Wake Forest Divinity School, is speaking on the intersection of food and faith at Emerywood Baptist Church on Wednesday, Sept. 12, 19, and 26. This is a wonderful opportunity for those in our parish who are interested in conversations around food insecurity and sustainability, specifically from a Christian perspective. The evening begins with a meal at 5:30pm, and programming begins around 6:15pm. The cost for the meal is $6/adult and $3/child. If you would like participate in the dinner, please RSVP to Lisa Bishop, lbishop@emerywoodbaptist.org, or call the Emerywood church office at 336-885-6016. You do not need to RSVP if you plan to attend only the programming.
